

Scott Panetti Pre-Crime Hospitalization and Mental Illness History

Date		Details
Year	Month-Day	Hospital	Doctor Comments	Diagnosis
1978	July	Brooke Army Medical Center	“Patient presents signs compatible with early schizophrenia. Signs include: seeing flashes of red light, confusing his voice with that of others (whispers), flight of ideas”	Early schizophrenia
1981 <sup>1</sup>	January	Kerrville State Hospital	Involuntary. Grandiose ideas, suspicious, hostile	Paranoia
1986 <sup>1</sup>	April	Starlite Village Hospital	Psychotic and not oriented to time, place or person on admission	Chronic undifferentiated schizophrenia
1986 <sup>1</sup>	May	Kerrville State Hospital	“Incoherent”, “paranoid” and “grandiose”	Paranoia
1986 <sup>1</sup>	May	Waco Veterans Hospital	Wife reports that he believed the devil was in the furniture and buried furniture in the backyard and then nailed the curtains shut.	Chronic undifferentiated schizophrenia, paranoia; treated with antipsychotic meds
1986 <sup>1</sup>	July	Veterans Administration Medical Center, Tomah (WI)	Failing to comply with his medication regimen. Threatening towards his wife and kids.	Chronic undifferentiated schizophrenia
1986 <sup>1</sup>	August	Cumberland Memorial Hospital (WI)	“patient has schizoid quality about him”; “appears to be on the edge of a psychotic break”. “Feels he is controlled by an unseen power.” “Patient has fears that the devil is after him.” “Hears Bob Dylan music in his head.” “Suicidal thoughts.” Patient’s “expectation of hospitalization is that he will be medicated so that he doesn’t hear voices anymore.”	Depression, brain dysfunction, delusions, auditory hallucinations
1986 <sup>1</sup>	September	Northern Pines Unified Services Center (WI)	Threatened suicide.	Depression, suicidal ideation
1986 <sup>1</sup>	September	Social Security Administration	Deemed disabled and deserving of Social Security benefits as a result of schizophrenia. “Prognosis would appear quite poor for the future due to the longevity of his psychosis with little improvement”	Chronic undifferentiated schizophrenia, severe
1986 <sup>1</sup>	October	Starlite Village	“I think what is outstanding here is that the patient is mentally ill, in	Schizophrenia

<sup>1</sup>Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

<sup>2</sup>Subsequent Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals

		Hospital	fact psychotic and most likely has been for years.” “It is obvious that he is delusional, that he shows incoherence of thinking”.
1986 <sup>1</sup>	October	Veterans Administration Medical Center, Kerrville	History of schizophrenia noted.	Schizoaffective disorder
1987 <sup>1</sup>	June	Veterans Administration Medical Center, Kerrville		Schizophrenia
1987 <sup>1</sup>	October	Veterans Administration Medical Center, Kerrville	“Needs to be back on medications”	Chronic schizoaffective disorder
1990 <sup>1</sup>	August	Kerrville State Hospital	Involuntary, homicidal behavior. “Started using assumed name `Sgt. Iron Horse””. “patient believes that there is a plot against him in Fredericksburg”; “probably had one psychotic break”
1991 <sup>2</sup>	July	Veterans Administration Medical Center, Kerrville	“manic-like level activity with poor insight” on admission; “speech was rambling and there was a preoccupation with religion”. Positive history of hallucinations noted.”	Acute schizoaffective disorder

<sup>1</sup>Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

<sup>2</sup>Subsequent Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals